Quack Quack,

Sorry for the lack of duck news recently, we've all been busy trying to keep warm in the cold weather and enjoying the streams to cruise around in, in the fields next to the pond. Now it's getting warmer we have been looking for quiet and secure places to nest so please keep an eye open in your gardens as we may have taken the liberty to settle there. If we have made a nest in your garden, we may leave it from time to time to head back to the pond to have a little swim and splash and to grab some food. But we do normally return unless something has scared us.

Once our eggs hatch we would be grateful if you could keep an eye on us and give the Duck Squad a call (Nic – 07899 885688/Pete – 07909 922284) so they can rescue us before we take our babies to the pond. They are too small to survive on the pond because of the hungry crows so the Duck Squad will take us in until the babies are big enough for the pond. Please also keep an eye out for the hungry foxes. One was spotted taking one of us for their supper. We tried to make a lot of noise to chase it away but sadly we weren't scary enough.

Hopefully next month we will have some news about new additions, we will keep you posted. Finally, thank you to everyone who continues to donate money, food and time to help the Duck Squad feed and look after us. We are all truly grateful.

P.S. If anyone wants to feed us occasionally, bags will be available in return for a modest 50p donation – contact Nic or Pete via mobile phone or Facebook.

News from Water Stratford

MARGARET ELEANOR HILSDON 1928 - 2018

The congregation overflowed into the churchyard for the service at St Giles on 6th April in Celebration for the Life of Margaret Hilsdon.

Born a farmer's daughter who became a farmer's wife, Margaret herself possessed considerable farming expertise. In her early Young Farmer years she travelled the country judging stock, and once won the Smithfield stock judging national competition. Even while raising her own large family, she helped set up and run a Lamb Bank, finding homes for orphaned lambs. She maintained her interest in stock when visiting her family who continued the farming tradition.

She was also known as an expert baker, for many years making at least twenty-one loaves a week, mixing the dough by hand. Her cakes and puddings were legendary. She was an active member for over seventy years and an officer of the WI, who were well represented at the service.

Margaret knew the sadness of loss: her mother, father and sister all died young, and her husband Frank in 2000. True to character, she dealt with adversity by picking herself up and 'just getting on with it'.

In later life she rediscovered the joy of travelling, visiting Cyprus, Australia, Fiji and the Falkland Islands. Independent and resourceful, she continued to do her own housekeeping, cooking, shopping and gardening, even chopping her own logs. She loved family occasions, relished any outing, and enjoyed simply talking with friends.

Margaret was the firm, loving centre of a family who think of her as a 'Supermum' and have very happy memories of the home she and Frank created. She will be missed by her seven children, fifteen grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, as well as her wider family and friends, who also knew her loyalty and kindness. We send them sympathy in their loss.

Thanks to the family for this information.

STOWE ARTS

We have just come back from a fantastic concert at Stowe featuring Jacqui Dankworth. It is just wonderful to go 10 minutes up the road to see a great variety of performances.

Membership is £10 a year, some concerts (especially half hour pupil concerts on a Thursday lunchtime) are free, and sometimes you pay for what you are seeing. We have enjoyed all the concerts, but the pupil performances are brilliant and some of them could go far in the musical world.

Look up their website www.artsatstowe.co.uk for their latest programmes or ask me for one. We can really recommend them!

TINGEWICK WALKERS

The March walk took place in the Thornborough area, which was surprisingly not too wet underfoot for most of the way. Parking at the Thornborough bridge, the walkers went into the first field, continued through the second and third and eventually arrived at the village, where they picked up a late arrival. Walking continued along a road for a while before turning off to cross more fields and ending up at Thornborough Mill. After crossing a bridge and following the Great Ouse river, the walk continued through a wood to eventually join the Buckingham arm of the Grand Union Canal. From then on, it was homeward bound through several fields, the last one proving to be the muddiest of all. Lunch was taken at The Bell at Beachampton.

If you would like to join the walkers, they meet on the last Tuesday of the month at 10am outside Tingewick Village Hall. Do come along and join in the fun. Contacts are Peter on 01280 848739 or Sara on 01280 847594.

Thornborough Cricket Club Needs you!

Thornborough Cricket Club (TCC) is recruiting players of all abilities and ages (+13) for the 2018 season.

We currently run two Saturday teams who play in the SNCL (South Northants Cricket League), one in the Premier Division and the other in Division 4. The season runs from May to August (16 weeks).

Our club has an ethos of providing cricket for all abilities and is a great transition for youngsters (13+) into adult cricket. At least eight of our regular first team came through the youth route, starting as juniors and progressing into key first team players.

Like many village cricket clubs, fielding two full teams of 11 players each week represents a constant challenge. If you're interested in joining a family-oriented cricket club with a great social atmosphere or would like to know more about our thriving club, please contact Ian Davies on 07713 117633 or daviesdave4@aol.com

EASTER

Was a very special time in church. The Maundy Thursday service was followed on Good Friday, by a very moving meditation with the Benefice Choir and lovely readings which Eleanor had compiled. Ron Bundock took the service on Easter Day – a sunny day for a change and a lovely service.
Thank you to everybody who cleaned and arranged beautiful flowers.

Bench Marks In Tingewick, Bucks

Very recently an Ordnance Survey bench mark has been found cut into the stonework of the fifteenth century church tower. Erosion, lichen and time have conspired to hide it.

Anyone who is curious to see it themselves it is on the buttress at the southwest corner of the tower. It consists of a broad arrow topped by a horizontal line. From that line the measurements are made. The height above sea level is 373'. According to Rev. John Coker, the long lived 19th century Rector of Tingewick, the mark was made shortly before December 1887.

Only two other bench mark are known to me in Tingewick. One mark is at the bottom of Church Lane cut into the brickwork and can be seen from the pavement. You might try to find it. The second one is an improved metal mark on the school. You may be able to see this from the roadway. Do you know of any others?

Technical advances have made them redundant but it is still interesting to see them.

Tingewick FC

Well the good old English weather has literally meant 'Rain stopped play'. We sadly have not been able to play any matches due to waterlogged pitches both at The Rec and at opposition grounds, leaving us now with serious match congestion for the remainder of the season.

Weather permitting, we will now be playing every Saturday until late May and mid-week games to try and ensure all games are completed before the end of the season.

The boys have continued to train, on the Astro at Stowe, to keep their fitness up and to be 'match ready' but we aim to move back to The Rec for our weekly training sessions now. Training is either Monday or Thursday at 6.30pm subject pitch condition and weather.

Our next home game is Saturday 21st April, with a run of home games coming up in May so it would be great to have some local support to cheer the boys on. If you would like to find out more about the club or when we have home fixtures please visit our website <http://tingewickfc.co.uk/>

Tingewick Recreation Fund

Following on from the announcement that the village now owns the recreation ground we now need to start fundraising for the equipment that's going to go on it.

One of the first things we are doing to help raise these funds is to launch:

The Tingewick Recreation Fund Lottery

To do this, we have teamed up with “Vale Lottery” which was set up by AVDC in 2015 to help support community projects like ours. Plus, in these times of shrinking budgets but increased community needs, the Vale Lottery enables local people to support local causes that matter most to them.

With a ticket price of £1 per week, all supporters get the chance to win a top prize of £25,000 (or smaller prizes of £2000, £250, £25 or 3 extra tickets) every ticket has a 1:50 chance of winning something....that's better odds than the National Lottery and the Health Lottery!

The draw takes place every Saturday night and winners will be advised directly...so if you don't get time to check ...Vale Lottery will let you know.

Each ticket will consist of your chosen 6 numbers between 0 and 9 and prizes will be awarded to players who match the first or last 2 numbers ...or first and last 3 numbers, etc., etc. ...match all 6 and you win the JACKPOT!!

Tickets can be bought on line at Vale Lottery - www.valelottery.co.uk

Then by clicking on the “buy tickets” followed by “support specific causes” and then typing in Tingewick ...our page will appear. If you are not on-line, you can ring the dedicated Vale Lottery number 01296 821212 to register and set up your payments.

For every £1 ticket sold the Tingewick Recreation Fund will get 50p ...so the more we can sell the quicker the fund will grow and the sooner we will have all the new sports facilities the village needs.

Please help spread the word for us and Good Luck!!

Help us tackle online child abuse

“You don’t have to do anything anyone online tells you – whether you know them or not”.

This powerful message from a victim of online child abuse is at the heart of the second phase of our Hidden Harm campaign, which we’re running in partnership with the NSPCC.

To mark the launch of this phase of the campaign, we’re sharing the true story of 12-year-old Ellie who built up a friendship via social media with someone claiming to be a 15-year-old boy.

The person she was speaking to was in fact a man in his forties who ended up sexually assaulting her numerous times. Watch Ellie’s story on our website.

Detective Superintendent Nick John, Head of Thames Valley Police’s Protecting Vulnerable People Unit, said: “Ellie’s story is a powerful example of how something as simple as accepting a friend request from a person you don’t know online can escalate into something with serious consequences.

“The internet is a huge part of most of our lives, especially for the younger generation and, while it brings a great deal of positive opportunities, unfortunately it can be misused by some people.

“This campaign isn’t about scaring people or telling them not to let their children use the internet. It’s about making everyone aware of the potential risks associated with children being online, ensuring they can spot the signs that may indicate a child is being abused and educating everyone on ways we can all help to keep them safe.

“Keeping children safe from harm is everyone’s responsibility and we are very pleased to be partnering with the NSPCC for this element of the campaign.”

Please follow the campaign via @ThamesVP on Twitter and the Thames Valley Police Facebook account using #HiddenHarm.

More information on the campaign, and the signs of online child abuse, can be found on our website – www.thamesvalley.police.uk/hiddenharm

NFIB Alert - False Telephone Preference Service Calls

Fraudsters are cold-calling victims, falsely stating that they are calling from one of the well-known UK telecommunication service providers. They call victims claiming to provide a ‘Telephone Preference Service’ - an enhanced call-barring service, which includes barring international call centres.

The fraudsters ask victims to confirm/provide their bank account details, informing them that there is a one-off charge for the service. Victims instead see monthly debits deducted from their accounts, which they have not authorised. The fraudsters often target elderly victims.

In all instances, direct debits are set up without following proper procedure. The victim is not sent written confirmation of the direct debit instruction, which is supposed to be sent within three days.

On occasions when victims attempted to call back, the telephone number provided by the fraudster was either unable to be reached or the victim’s direct debit cancellation request was refused.

During 2017, there were 493 Action Fraud Reports relating to this fraud.

Protect yourself:

There is only one Telephone Preference Service (TPS). The TPS is the only official UK ‘do-not-call’ register for opting out of live telesales calls. It is FREE to sign-up to the register. TPS never charge for registration. You can register for this service at <http://www.tpsonline.org.uk>.

You will receive postal confirmation of genuine direct debits. If you notice unauthorised payments leaving your account, you should contact your bank promptly.

Always be wary of providing personal information, or confirming that personal information the caller already claims to hold is correct. Always be certain that you know who you talking to. If in doubt hang up immediately.

If you have been affected by this, or any other type of fraud, report it to Action Fraud by visiting www.actionfraud.police.uk or by calling 0300 123 2040

Is your shed secure?

Spring is here. Many residents in Aylesbury Vale will start working in their gardens, tidying up after the winter. In the past, burglaries to sheds and outbuildings start to increase in the spring and summer months. Thames Valley Police is asking residents to take a moment to review the security of their sheds and outbuildings:-

Make sure your sheds, outbuildings and garages are locked when not in use, by using strong padlocks.

Consider fitting bars or locks to the windows.

Use anti-tamper screws, to prevent doors being removed.

Use a battery or mains operated shed alarm, which can be bought from most DIY stores or garden centres.

Consider using a strong box, anchored to the floor, to store smaller tools and lock bigger items, such as lawn mowers, bicycles etc to each other, or to the shed.

Mark all your tools and equipment with your postcode, or you can purchase property marking kits, which uniquely identify property as being owned by you (further details on our website – link below).

Make sure that anyone acting suspiciously is reported immediately to the police. Where possible get a description of them, along with details of any vehicle they are using.

If you are working in your garden make sure your doors are secure (both front and rear) when they are not in your direct view.

Further crime prevention advice and information can be found on the Thames Valley Police website. Please make sure that opportunist criminals are not benefiting from your work in your garden!

Online Marketplace Fraud Advice For Sellers

Action Fraud has received several reports indicating that sellers of items on online marketplace websites are falling victim to fraud by bogus buyers. Typically, the bogus buyers contact the seller wanting to purchase the item for sale and advise they will be sending the requested amount via PayPal or other electronic payment method. The seller then receives a fake, but official looking email stating they have been paid more than the asking price and to send the difference back to the buyer's bank account. In reality, no money has ever been sent to the seller; the bogus buyer has spoofed an email and purported to be an online payment company. All contact is then severed with the seller.

It is important to remember that selling anything could make you a target to these fraudsters however the NFIB has identified that those offering sofas, large furniture and homeware are particularly vulnerable.

Protection Advice

Don't assume an email or phone call is authentic. Remember criminals can imitate any email address. Stay in control. Always use a trusted payment method online, such as PayPal, and have the confidence to refuse unusual requests for payment like bank transfers.

Don't be rushed or pressured into making a decision. Always verify that you have received payment from the buyer before completing a sale.

Listen to your instincts. Criminals will try and make unusual behaviour, like overpaying, seem like a genuine mistake.

Magazine Advertise Debt Alert

Victims receive a telephone call from someone purporting to be a bailiff enforcing a court judgement, attempting to recover funds for a non-existent debt. The fraudsters state the debt originates from the victim not paying a magazine advertisement subscription.

A variety of magazine names and publishers are being used by the fraudsters, who also commonly use the names of certified Bailiff Enforcement Agents such “Scott Davis”, “Stephen King” and “Mark Taylor”. These are names of certified Bailiff Enforcement Agents employed by debt enforcement companies.

The fraudsters request that the debt be repaid by bank transfer. If the victim refuses, they threaten to visit the victim’s home or place of work to recover the debt that is owed.

Once the money has been transferred, victims are not provided with receipt details of the payment or contact details. Later when victims make enquiries, they’ll discover that the debt did not exist, and often that no advertisement was placed.

This type of fraud is nationwide. Since 2017, there have been 52 Action Fraud Reports relating to this fraud. From the reports received, there are a range of different businesses and individuals being targeted.

Protection Advice:

1. Listen to your instinct: just because someone knows your basic details, such as your name and address, it doesn’t mean they are genuine.
2. Stay in control: always question cold callers: always contact the companies directly using a known email or phone number.
3. Don’t be rushed or pressured into making a decision: a legitimate company will be prepared to wait whilst you verify information.

Fraudulent Cryptocurrency Investments and Fake Endorsements

Fraudulent websites alleging to offer cryptocurrency investments are dishonestly using the image of Martin Lewis, the founder and editor for moneysavingexpert.com, as an endorsement for their companies.

The adverts using Martin Lewis to promote illicit schemes can be found on social media and other websites. Clicking on the advert takes you to the full article where Martin Lewis image is presented along with fake quotes recommending investments in bitcoin and other digital currencies with the fraudulent “company”. Alternatively clicking on the advert will take you to a page where you are required to input your contact details, the suspect company then phones you and encourages you to invest.

Martin Lewis has published a warning to the public saying “I don’t do adverts. If you ever see one with my face or name on it, it is without my permission, and usually a scam”. The full article can be found here; https://blog.moneysavingexpert.com/2018/03/13/martin-lewis-spread-word-dont-believe-scam-bitcoin-code-bitcoin-trading-ads/?_

Similarly these fraudulent websites are also misusing images and fabricating recommendations from the investors on Dragons Den. These adverts also claim the investors on the panel trade in cryptocurrencies using their services to try and legitimise their company.

What you need to do

Don’t assume it’s authentic: Professional-looking websites, adverts or social media posts don’t indicate that an investment opportunity is genuine. Criminals can exploit the names of well-known brands or individuals to make their scams appear legitimate.

Don’t be rushed or pressured into making a decision: A genuine bank or financial organisation won’t force you to make a financial transaction on the spot. Always be wary if you’re pressured to invest quickly or promised returns that sound too good to be true.

Stay in control: Avoid unsolicited investment offers, especially those over cold calls. If you’re thinking about making an investment, get impartial advice from an independent financial adviser – never use an adviser from the company that contacted you, as this may be part of the scam.
