St Mary Magdalene Church Tingewick

Services for December

Wednesday 8th December: 10.00am – Holy Communion (spoken)

Sunday 19th December: 10.30am – Family Holy Communion and Carols

Friday 24th December 5.30pm – Crib Service

Friday 24th December 11.30pm – Midnight Holy Communion

Nativity Trail & Christmas Tree

On Saturday 18th December we will have a Nativity Trail in the church and the churchyard, between 2pm and 4pm.

Everyone is welcome to come along and see the nativity scenes and floral displays. We will also have our Christmas Tree in the porch in the run-up to Christmas, for the children to decorate with their own decorations in exchange for a Christmas Story sheet. More details will follow on Tingewick Life in the coming weeks, but please pencil the date in your diaries.

Crib Service

On Christmas Eve at 5.30pm, we will be holding our very popular Crib Service. It would be lovely to see as many families from the village as possible and for the children to take part in the Nativity Story.

Church Opening

The Church is now closed during the day apart from for services. We will re-open daily again in the Spring.

Food Bank

HELP REQUIRED PLEASE.... With Christmas not too far away, the Food Bank are in even greater need of donations to help local families. At this time of year the amount of food parcels required greatly increases, so we would like to ask for your help once again to do as much as we can for them during this time. The support that we have received from the village over the past year has been fantastic and we would like to thank everyone that has donated in the past and continues to donate. The boxes will remain in the church porch for any donations of items that you can spare. Everything that is collected is distributed to families in our area, so we really are helping our near neighbours. Please help us to help them. Thank you.

THE TRAVEL DIRECTORS

Jo Scurr, Linda Morris and Kelly White are the Travel Directors, your local travel experts

We all live with our families in Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire and have between us more than 85 years of Travel Industry experience. For the last 10 years we have all worked for leading luxury long haul tour operators and have been lucky enough to have experienced first-hand the most amazing destinations across the globe. We can of course also help with a European trip or even some innovative UK holidays. Our ethos for setting up our own business as The Travel Directors was that we felt there is a genuine gap in the market for a local Travel Company that not only has a wealth of knowledge, a love of travel but also a genuine passion for great customer service. So out of this: Jo, Linda and Kelly as The Travel Directors was born.

The Travel Directors can offer you everything from Luxury Long Haul Travel, City Breaks, Cruise, Weddings, The Ultimate Florida Holiday to European Beach Holidays and Original UK holidays

We are fully ABTA bonded and ATOL protected meaning your money is 100% safe

Why would you risk your money booking online, trawling through endless websites where you cannot speak to a person and are just a number or a seat on a plane. Even with a High Street agency, you will see directional selling, promoting their own products rather than what is best for you. We are truly independent but with the financial backing and buying power of the Mid-Counties Co-operative meaning that we have access to the best rates from only trusted suppliers.

News from Water Stratford

REMEMBRANCE

Nearly thirty of us gathered in the churchyard for our first short outdoor Remembrance observance. It was moving to have tributes laid, and the second part of the exhortation ('At the going down of the sun...') read, by young people. The day was mild and dry, allowing for an extended time of conversation after the service. We heard words from the war poet Siegfried Sassoon:

Have you forgotten yet?...

Look up, and swear by the slain of the war that you'll never forget!

SIGNING OFF

We come to the end of another strange year with many reasons to feel grateful for a beautiful place and supportive community. It is time for me to hang up my boots/keyboard, so this is my last 'News from Water Stratford'. Sincere thanks to the editors, past and present, of 'The Link' and 'Tingewick News' for all their hours of work, and of course to all the many people who have contributed to, and read, our news. It has been an interesting and enjoyable task! Good wishes to everyone for happiness at Christmas and an easier time in the year ahead.

Do you need to have a good sort-out?

Have you tuned in to Stacey Solomon's BBC One programme "Sort Your Life Out"? If you haven't seen the show, Stacey helps people that have become overwhelmed with 'things' - possessions which have built up over time and become prohibitive to a functional daily life.

At some point, we've probably all been faced with a drawer, cupboard or room full of items that we don't know what to do with - and quickly closed the door again. It can be hard to part with things. There's a completely natural and common feeling of 'but what if I need this one day?' or there may be a sentimental reason for holding on to it. Often we simply don't have the time (or inclination) to deal with the issue. However, the benefits of reorganising and decluttering can be significant.

What are the benefits? Less things in your life means less to tidy, less to clean and less to think about. Less items create the feeling of space and room to breathe in your home. You can also locate items when needed, with greater speed and ease.

Keeping items in a tidy and organised manner results in a feeling of increased control over your life, which leads to a greater sense of wellbeing and more time to spend doing things you really enjoy. It can also help the planet as many items that you no longer need can be recycled, donated to charity or sold, and therefore put to good use. You don't have to let go of everything but to go through the process of assessing what you have, and what you want to keep, and reorganising it can be very beneficial.

How do you start to organise your home? Starting small is always advised – pick one drawer. Remove the items. What don't you want to put back in the drawer? What should go somewhere else? Aside from TV shows, there is endless advice available on the internet and there are various books on the subject that have been published over the years.

If you'd like more hands-on assistance you could engage a Professional Organiser and Declutterer. They are able to assist with anything from reorganising spaces, to preparing for whole house moves. They can help organise paperwork or photos that may have built up over the years - or even with managing the clearance of a home in the sad event of a bereavement. Having someone who will work at your pace and guide you through the process with understanding can be extremely helpful, and their experience invaluable.

With the colder weather now here and the festive season almost upon us, our homes are the backdrop for entertaining friends and family or perhaps just a quiet and cosy place to relax. However you use your home, being able to enjoy it to its maximum potential is the goal.

If you would like more information on how to organise and declutter your home, please contact Emma Slack, Calm and Collected Spaces on 07399 201648, email hello@calmandcollectedspaces.co.uk or visit www.calmandcollectedspaces.co.uk.
